An inner city congregation with a history of hosting disaster response teams and affectionately known as The Bee Hive, this congregation is actively engaged with the surrounding neighborhood through community garden network, by partnering with nearby agencies such as McKemie Place, a shelter for homeless women, the UM Inner City Mission's Taylor Park, etc. Opportunities exist for community focused projects with nearby ministries. Previous teams have conducted Back Yard Bible Clubs, served meals to the homeless, and served children through a summer enrichment program. UMVIM teams are also needed to assist the congregation in renovating a century-old parsonage for ministry use. Skills needed include: general and finishing carpentry, plumbing, minor electrical tasks, as well as plaster repairs and painting. Recent teams have completed a half-bath, constructed custom-built window frames and sashes, and repaired wall plaster. Licensed professionals have rewired the structure to modern building codes. The congregation has a kitchen, shower and lodging space to accommodate teams of 30 or less.
