Fall Renewal Conference 2012

It's fall! What a great time of year with so many different activities. We take time in the fall for football, soccer, yard work, beach trips, shopping, mountain trips, tournaments, and list goes on and on. As a Harvest family we also plan a special time in the fall to be together – the Fall Conference!

The Lord shapes our lives, families, and church as we set aside time to hear from Him. At this conference, we have the opportunity to spend extra time together (and some of the best people of all to spend time with are at Harvest). We get to worship, listen to an outstanding speaker, and minister to one another.

Mostly we come asking God to move in our lives. We want His touch that brings transformation. We come asking Him to meet with us and move in us personally. His touch changes us for eternity.

During this time the Lord will do a special work in our lives individually and together as a church. It's a time of spiritual refreshing, life-changing freedom, revelation, and growth.

In the midst of all the activities of the fall, take some time during these few days to focus on the main purpose of life: Loving God and loving each other!

Guest Speaker: Dr. Steve Seamands

Steve has ministered at Harvest in the past, and God has spoken through him to us. His teaching has brought transformation and freedom to many, as well as direction for the church.

Dr. Stephen Seamands currently serves as the Professor of Christian Doctrine at Asbury Seminary. Prior to assuming a teaching position at the seminary, he pastored United Methodist churches in southern New Jersey for eleven years. Steve is known for gracefully merging the classical and the practical. His courses on theology and doctrine are taught with a scholar's mind and a pastor's heart. In addition to teaching and working with seminary students, Steve is actively engaged in leading seminars and retreats and conducting spiritual renewal events in local churches across the U.S.

The son of missionary parents, Steve grew up in India. He has earned degrees from Asbury College (B.A.), Asbury Theological Seminary (M.Div.), Princeton Theological Seminary (Th.M.), and Drew University (Ph.D.). He is the author of six books including Christology and Transition in the Theology of Edwin Lewis (University Press of America, 1987); Holiness of Heart and Life (Abingdon Press, 1990), A Conversation with Jesus (Victor Books, 1994), Wounds that Heal: Bringing Our Hurts to the Cross (InterVarsity Press, 2003), and Ministry in the Image of God: The Trinitarian Shape of Christian Service (InterVarsity Press, 2005), which received the 2006 Christianity Today "Award of Merit" for books in the area of Church and pastoral leadership. His most recent book is Give Them Christ: Preaching His Incarnation, Crucifixion, Resurrection, Ascension and Return (InterVarsity Press, 2012).

Dr. Seamands and his wife, Carol, are the parents of four adult children, Matthew, Jason, Joseph and Stephanie, and have eight grandchildren. In his leisure time, he enjoys playing racquetball and golf, as well as listening to various types of music.
