To Know Jesus and To Make Him Known

to encourage us even as we encourage them in their work.

We'll worship and celebrate the move of the Holy Spirit in other cultures. We'll pray for those who have not yet heard the name of Jesus, and we'll discern God's call on our church and on every heart. We'll pray to be set on fire for the great adventure of joining God in His work.

Start praying now. Pray that God is glorified as we open ourselves to His grand plan. Pray that lives are transformed and new directions are discovered. Pray that God grants us grace to share in greater ways in the work of the Kingdom in the coming year.

Pray that as God moves, we move!

2014 GLOBAL IMPACT CELEBRATION KEYNOTE SPEAKERS

The Rev. LISA AUSLEY

At least three chambers of Lisa Ausley's four-chamber heart belong to missions. Lisa is an ordained deacon in the UMC serving the St. Mark campus (Crestview, Fla.) of the Niceville UMC. She is listed on the church's website as the "go to girl" to help you find your way to the mission field. As a teenager, Lisa accepted a calling to ministry and her sole passion was foreign missions. She didn't realize at the time, that her "calling" would be to encourage and lead lay people in the local church to fields all over the globe. Lisa, herself, has done mission work in Mexico, Costa Rica, Colombia and Spain. For 17 years, she has served on the board of trustees for One Mission Society, a mission sending agency in the Wesleyan tradition.

Lisa has a master's of religion in English Bible from Asbury Theological Seminary and has a passion for teaching inductive Bible study, using a book she co-authored entitled, LifeChanging Bible Study, which is used as a text in Christian colleges and seminaries.

Her favorite role is as wife to the Rev. Ruel Ausley, lead pastor at the Niceville UMC. The Ausleys have three adult sons whom Lisa home-schooled: Matthew (who was the parsonage baby at Aldersgate UMC in 1983-84), a law student; Andrew, an engineer in Atlanta; and Luke, an engineering student at the University of Central Florida.

The Rev. DICK McCLAIN

Dick McClain became president and chief executive officer of The Mission Society in September 2009. He is the longest-tenured member of the staff, having been its first director of missionary personnel in 1986. He has served as vice president for mission ministry, vice president for church operations, and executive vice president and chief operating officer.

Dick has been a part of the growth of The Mission Society from eight staff and 14 missionaries to a ministry that today encompasses more than 200 missionaries who serve in 35 countries, as well as collaborative efforts with numerous churches and Christian organizations around the world.

The son and grandson of missionaries, Dick was born in China and grew up in India and Hong Kong. Prior to joining the staff of The Mission Society, he served as the youth minister for an interdenominational congregation in the Panama Canal Zone. An ordained United Methodist minister, he served pastorates in West Michigan for 11 years. His international ministry has taken him to numerous countries in the Caribbean, Central and South America, Africa, Asia and Europe.

Dick has a bachelor's degree in psychology from Asbury College and a master's of divinity with special emphasis in missions from Asbury Theological Seminary. He married his college sweetheart, Pam, and the couple has three married children: Josh (and Amita), Heather McClain Wilson (and Steve), and Joey (and Ashley). They also have six grandchildren.
