She is an Endorsed Life Coach with the UMC, holds the ACC credential with the International Coach Federation, and coaches and teaches preachers all over the United States. She holds a B.A. in Creative Writing from the University of Tennessee, a Masters of Divinity from Emory

University, and is completing her Doctorate of Ministry in Preaching from Aquinas Institute of Theology. Teresa is a successful church planter, coach, speaker, consultant, and seminar presenter.

What others say:

“In my working with her as a minister Teresa’s focus on expanding the Kingdom should be commended. She is innovative, creative, passionate, energetic and is a great writer and leader. Her work ethic and drive is inspiring! I would highly recommend her both as a spiritual leader and as a coach for other ministers.”

Stress-less Preaching: It is Possible!

For the pastor who is new to the pulpit, preaching can be an intimidating and sometimes overwhelming experience. For the seasoned pastor, preaching can become unimaginative and routine. Some preachers write great sermons but have a delivery that is dry as unbuttered toast. Other preachers are engaging and eloquent, but offer little substance in the sermon. For every pastor, finding ways to preach the word in fresh, authentic ways is a challenge. Powerful preaching facilitates an encounter with Christ, and is one of the primary ways that our congregations connect with God. Powerful preaching answers the “So What?” of the scripture for the congregation. And powerful preaching is a mark of a healthy congregation, and a healthy preacher. Through coaching, every preacher can become one who speaks with power, with authority, with compassion, and with love.

Join UMC Endorsed Coach Reverend Teresa Angle-Young for this fun and inspiring workshop at beautiful Lake Junaluska.
